WRITING TO PRAY

March 9-11, 2012

Friday 7:00 pm - Sunday 1:00 pm

There is an adage that "Writing is thinking on paper," but we could easily say that "writing is praying on paper." The act of writing, either by hand or on the computer, requires us to slow our thinking down and the space between our thoughts and words, gives God the chance to "slip" in. During this weekend retreat we will explore journal writing and writing in response to sacred images, biblical figures, music, scripture, spiritual topics and other writings. Participants will explore different ways to enrich their prayer through writing.

$185.00

Registration deposit $ 100.00

This fee includes two nights accommodation in a private room, three meals Saturday and two meals Sunday
